SECTION G.7.
File No. 560—11
Serial No. 51-1

My dear Sir,

With reference to the Officers and the Subordinates who did special work in connection with the visit to Delhi for the Coronation Durbar in December last year, His Highness has been pleased to approve the grant of bonuses to them as detailed in the statement enclosed and he desires me to request you for the kind issue of formal orders sanctioning them. While sanctioning these cash presents, His Highness desires an expression of the appreciation of the services rendered on the occasion by Messrs Karve and Runga Rao and Dr. Krishnaswamier placed on record also. Mr. Karve, on whom the brunt of the work fell, responded splendidly and the efficient, economical and loyal manner in which he realised his responsibilities was fully appreciated. Mr. Runga Rao was in charge of all supplies to Camps and he did his work unostentatiously, and satisfactorily. Dr. Krishna-

Dr. Krishnaswamier's attention to sanitation was very effective and the good health which prevailed in the Camps was no doubt attributable to it, while his care of the patients in the camp Hospital was all that could be desired.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

P Raghavendra Rao

T. Ananda Row Esq., C.I.E.,
